

We're all in the same shoes

GIVE OR TAKE A SIZE...

Ever try explaining to someone who doesn't play sports the elation of cresting the last hill of a long run or riding a wave all the way in for the first time? They smile and nod politely, but their eyes say "huh?"

A passion for sports is what brought each of us here to Athleta. We're excited to help you find the ideal sports bra or trail shoe because we get the reason that you need them in the first place. Throughout the catalog you'll find write-ups of some of the experiences we've had testing products, with more on athleta.com. And when you call or place your order online, feel free to tell us about some of your best moments. We'll smile and nod too, but our eyes will be saying "oh yeah."
